

Seniors Kept Busy As Special Activities

MARY ELLEN RUIZ

GARY ALVIN SCHULTZ

During the course of the year, all seniors find themselves swept up in the tidal wave of activities. Kept busy way after school hours, they find all their spare time consumed by such special activities as the slave auction, senior work day, and posing for the senior pictures.

The senior year is really a Light To The Future as the time spent brightens their future and acts as a guiding light for the rest of their lives.
