Two of DeWitt's seniors, Shirley Savage and Dave Reed, were honored this year by the Lansing STATE JOURNAL in its Teen Salute. This honor is bestowed upon a senior boy and girl who have maintained a good scholastic average and have excelled in other areas. They are featured in the paper, one in the fall and the other in the spring.

Anyone attending football games saw Dave Reed as the drum major leading and organizing the half-time festivities. He excelled in cross country and track. Although a severe leg injury soon incapacitated him, he maintained all other class interests. Maintaining at least a 3.0 average, he was elected to the National Honor Society in his junior year. He also rounded out his interests through his activities in drama club and art.

Shirley Savage has been a member of National Honor Society for two years and has received various scholastic awards. As a result of her interest in drama she has acted as Drama Club Treasurer this past year and has been active in the various plays throughout high school. She received a Home Economics Award and another from the Betty Crocker Test. Shirley plans a career in teaching after college.
