

Robert J. Bernath

Sherry Lynn Bernath

Deborah Louise Bigelow

Dorothy Louise Bloomer

Douglas Allen Boog

Chester Frank Borton, Jr.

Ida Elaine Brady

Carl Wayne Brown

THE SENIORS BUILD TRADITIONS

The Class of 1967, representing the first graduating class of the combined Ovid and Elsie High Schools, totaled 149 students. Senior Class officers were George Keck, President; David Bates, Vice-President; Joanne Tefertiller, Secretary; Kathy Sconsky, Secretary; and, Jim Roof, Historian.

The class selected BLUE AND GOLD, the school colors, as their class colors. The WHITE ROSE was chosen as the class flower. John Craig was responsible for placing the Seniors' attitude into words when he suggested the phrase which was adopted as the class motto: LET'S BE TOMORROW'S ANSWERS . . . NOT ITS PROBLEMS.

Senior activities were primarily under the direction of Senior sponsors, Mrs. Betty Lewis and Mr. Russell Pope. The Seniors participated in the Spirit Night held in the fall and won the Student Council Trophy. In February, the class sponsored a formal Valentine's Ball. Because of the lack of time in the new facilities, the class cooperated with the Juniors in producing "Seven Days in May", the Junior-Senior Play.

Closing activities for the Seniors included the Junior-Senior Prom on May 6; the Junior-Senior Banquet, with Class Night activities included, on May 20; a Senior Day (which replaced Skip Day) on May 26; Baccalaureate on May 28; and, finally, Commencement on June 1.