

We Do Not Know What The Future Holds . . .

Senior year in high school is always the biggest, the best, and certainly the most important. The seniors of 1972 will soon experience a new life, their whole future lays stretched out before them, waiting.

They have performed a junior class play. Their last play on the O-E stage was "Our Miss Brooks". A Beautiful night was a perfect setting for the crowning of the Homecoming queen. The four years were brought to a climax with the Junior-Senior Prom and brought to a halt with graduation. Although we may not know what the future holds, we do know who holds it.

The Senior class officers and advisors were: Seated: Ardith Gruesbeck, vice president; Ron Mead, president; Kathleen Saxton, Secretary. Standing: Mrs. Boone, advisor; Lester Heinze, Historian; Mr. Oberlain, Advisor. Not shown is Frank Quine, Treasurer.
