

As you flip through the next few pages you will see the look of twelve years of achievement on each separate face. The senior year is about the best year and it holds privileges. In the near future, they will put to use the knowledge they have learned and the peace they need to keep, which is the way of life. All past experiences will be put to use at long last.

They have many memories to look back on. Besides the good old school day memories they have Senior Play, Junior-Senior Prom, Junior-Senior Banquet and finally the big day of graduation.

The Senior class officers and advisors are: STANDING: Mr. Oberlin — advisor, Linda Morgan — Historian, JoAnn Galecka — Vice-President, Mrs. Boone — advisor. SEATED: Linda Erfourth — Treasurer, Bobette Hubbard — President. Missing is Connie Everts — Secretary.
