

How do you see yourself or a friend in ten years?

"In ten years, Tammy Adamec will be Amy Long's full time lawyer." -Mindy M. Tribley

"I see Betsy Bashore with two kids dressed in the best clothes. She will be a president's secretary for some company and making pretty good money living in the city close to the shopping malls. (Of course!)" -Terri Wenzlick

"I see Dan Price yelling at his three kids for things he use to do as a kid." -Mike Loynes

"I see Michele Dolan in a high powered broadcasting agency calling all the shots." -Jessica Bishop

"I see Holly Albaugh in her 300th performance of Edith in 'Death by Chocolate' with millions of people going to see it, just because of her." -Christine Baese

"Working and very successful all the way to retirement." -Walt Peru

"I see myself well into my law enforcement field and at the rank of detective. By then I will have at least one kid (a boy) and a beautiful wife in a one story house (nothing too expensive, just moderate)." -Chris Darling

"Working and screwing around." -Mike Long

"Teaching music so we will maintain one of our fine arts." -Heather Hall

"I see Carl Winans as a famous philosopher." -Heather Dennison

