The Time Has Come

*"It seems like only yesterday"
We've all heard this famous phrase
But we realize how true it is
When we remember high school days*

*Homecomings, games, and parties, too
They all were so much fun
But now that we will graduate
Life has only just begun*

*We go out into this world of ours
With many hopes and many fears
And we say bye to all our friends
We've known throughout the years*

*We wish luck to those younger
Whose schooling is not yet done
And we ask them to remember
The class of Nineteen-Eighty-One*
