

JACK SIRRINE

Confident leader of the Class of '46—got game suit for the gridiron match with Ithaca—was a butler in the junior play—"plays at" the horn—his gait typifies his ambition—better known as "Joke" or "Stupe"—"It's a bird, it's a plane, it's Sirrine!"

RICHARD HEBELER

Vice president of the senior class—had a good Model-T—a corner plus another car plus an unknown amount of speed and "Dick" is willing to sell—junior play and committee—senior play.

PATRICIA SLIFE

Our class secretary—"Patty" likes to drive—alto in chorus and Christmas program two years—musical one year—assisted in the backstage work of the senior play—Ushers' club.

HELEN MARTIS

"Quiet? That's what you think!"—Well known for her painless extraction of class dues—active "Home Maker" for two years—chorus and Christmas programs of '43 welcomed her alto—Helen favors the "tropical" tunes—it won't be Martis long.

JEAN KALTRIDER

Kept the class records one year—member of Latin club and F. H. A.—for two years she has played piano for orchestra, chorus, and trumpet trio—musicals, Christmas programs—junior play—Defense council—Student council—always willing and ready to help.

JOHN SNYDER

Fugitive from Gratiot county—three years of F. F. A.—three years of football as a guard—managed to make National Honor Society—tried out acting ability in junior play—led our junior class as president—now represents us in Student council as its president.

LEADING ROLES