

MARCEDA SHAFLEY

Oh-h, that dark brown curly hair—wears clothes with an air—a true lover of horses—a strong alto—a new member of the sextette—trombone trio and band—musical—Christmas programs.

MARTHA SILVERS

Was a member of chorus—Latin club—she wears a white uniform in a becoming manner and knows more about H-hour than most—Ushers' club—Library club.

MARTHA SMITH

"Which weekend was that?"—"Mickey" is a quiet, friendly person—member of the Latin club—thinking of Grand Rapids Business College after pursuing a commercial-academic course through four years at Rodney B.

JERRY SNITGEN

Made the football team as fullback and proudly scored a few touchdowns—also played basketball—met a girl up north, "I ain't foolin' yuh a bit—she's a nice girl"—at movies his laugh is heard—rumor has it that he wants to be a farmer—quite a sense of humor in an odd sort of way.

DEAN STEVES

Served on J-Hop committee—his talents lean toward the musical field—loves to toot his sax—Hunt's No. 1 salesman—has more "moola" now than Ray Lee has gone to Arizona.

CHARLEEN SYMMONDS

Our ever busy editor—Defense council—junior and senior play committees and J-Hop committee—Latin and Writers' clubs—landed freshman scholarship award—National Honor Society—with her mellow trombone has appeared in musicals, Christmas programs, band, brass sextette, orchestra, trombone trio—chorus—ready to help anyone, to get out of class—"Interlochen, here I come!"

PLAYERS

HELLENE TAYLOR

She has a yen for homemaking and interior decorating—a smile and a lovely complexion—J-Hop committee—Ushers' club—Library club—"Oh, for a home of my own."

