

JOHN THRUSH

Explosive personality in the junior play—strong supporter of F. F. A. for four years—football player for two years—Varsity club—senior play committee—J-Hop committee—chorus, Christmas programs, musicals.

TED VAIL

Heavy footed on the accelerator—chorus and musicals as a junior—Varsity club, 'cause of basketball—beats out a wicked dance step—quite the pool shark—lives to a code, "Love 'em and leave 'em"—"Honest, I'm a physical wreck."

DOROTHY VAN DOUSER

The gal with the notions—positive in her attitudes, straightforward—her generosity and friendly smile have won her a host of friends—helped the junior play cast remember lines—sang alto in a Christmas program and musical.

JULAIN VIGES

Is taking a business course—looking forward to bigger and better business—conscientious worker—a typist on the Annual staff—Ushers' club—in her spare time makes with a fancy squeeze box.

PEGGY VITEK

Ah, those intermissions at senior play rehearsals—may be a director some day—musical, Christmas program—a member of chorus for three years—Ushers' club—"Do you like 'em short?"

WINONA WABER

An important "figure" of the senior class—she was new, but it didn't take her long to get acquainted—two years a member of F. H. A.

WADE WAKEFIELD

"I'm gonna be a farmer"—F. F. A. four years—three years of football—one year Varsity—he had been trying hard for three years—one of Mr. Carpenter's valuable assistants on J-Hop decorations—junior and senior play casts.

PLAYERS