

BARBARA GREEN

"Greenie"—the crystal ball reveals a DeWitt farm—active on junior play committee—J-Hop committee—musicals, Christmas programs, chorus—Library club—F. H. A.—president of Ushers' club.

SHIRLEY HALL

Devoted her four years to homemaking and commercial courses—shy attractive smile—a cheerful, optimistic disposition.

JACK HANSEN

"Ramona, are you there?"—junior play committee—chorus three years—loves to drive a certain Pontiac coupe—former member of Writers' club—known as "Handsome Hansen."

OLIVE HANSEN

"Ollie" lent her tapping toes to a musical—took part in chorus her first and second years—F. H. A.—plays a mean game of basketball—acts as a decoy for ticket buyers at the Clinton Theater.

NAOMI HANSENS

"Joe"—"Remember the Detroit blond?"—won an essay award—secretary one year—sang in a musical—chorus two years—Latin club—Ushers' club—likes to ride.

MARY LOU HARDMAN

"That Saturday afternoon job of hers"—worked on J-Hop committee—took part in the senior play—member of the new Ushers' club.

SHIRLEY HARLOW

She likes her "Arts"—served on the J-Hop committee—musicals, Christmas program, chorus—typist on the Annual staff—"sells (?) at the Penney Store."

PLAYERS