

LEONARD HARPER

Manager of the football team for two hectic years—student representative in junior year—followed two years of acting in junior and senior plays—member of the Annual staff—blew baritone for four years in band, three years in brass sextette—"dynamite comes in a small package."

BERTHA HAUSER

"If smiles were dollar bills, she'd never have to work"—Bertha never seems to worry about her troubles—musical, Christmas program, and chorus as a junior—Ushers' club—Library club.

BEVERLY HAYHOE

"Who, me?"—another musical member of the Class of '46—played clarinet for four years in Christmas programs and musicals—went domestic with two years of F. H. A.—heading for business school.

PAUL HENNING

A few say he's quiet, some wonder, others know better—assists with the phys. ed. classes for Central's fifth and sixth grade boys.

RONALD HENNING

"Burk"—proud owner of a Ford V-8—junior play—senior play—as good at telling yarns as Paul Bunyan himself—plays a mean game of ping-pong.

BERNARD JORAE

One of the main spark plugs of the football team, where he accredited himself to four years of well-played football as guard and quarterback—performed in junior play—keeps dead classes alive with his brilliant remarks—that characteristic walk—"I'm just a red blooded American boy."

PLAYERS

DOROTHY KAMPFE

A soprano warbler—added her support to chorus, Christmas programs, and musicals—she and Caesar were pals in Latin club—we hear she has a "sugar daddy" uncle—Ushers' club—Library club.
