

RICHARD KINGSBURY

"Dick" can often be seen with his gun and dog—president of the sophomore class—a veteran Defense council man of two years standing—member of the Annual staff—his golden voice was heard in chorus one year—offered assistance on the junior play committee—a rough, defensive center on the football squad with one year in Varsity club—"Great Caesar!"

BETTY KRISTOFFERSON

Quiet—freckled—Betty is after a business course—or is it "domestic?"—she tiptoed her way through high school.

JOYCE KUHNS

Keeper of the class money-bag for two years—"Blanding's servant to the public"—capable actress in both junior and senior plays—"a little squeek" in the clarinet section for four years—J-Hop committee—Christmas programs.

DURWARD LAPHAM

A farmer-to-be—has a knack for play committees—"Duke" had a good '36 Ford until it rolled over—now he sports a Model-A.

JAMES LIGHT

Behold! Whiteside—in senior play too—won his letter in football as a tackle—gave his support to the band for three years—in the musical "Best Foot Forward"—favorite hobby is cracking jokes—"Jim Heavy."

BERNARD MANKEY

"Bernard's a ladies' man, right to the core, If you don't believe us, just follow him more!" Always around when stage work is needed—had an active junior year as a member of the play cast and committee—J-Hop committee—musical and Christmas program.

HELEN MAREK

Haunts the halls around the commercial rooms—lives to be seen and not heard—her classes wait for her—moves calmly and with hesitation.
