

LOIS MARTEN

Lois is a chorus regular, always around at Christmas or musical time to lend a helping hand—another Latin clubber—will enliven any group she's with—Library club—"watch that volley ball."

RAYMOND McCULLOUGH

Better known as "Mac"—served on junior play and J-Hop committees—can really sing western songs—girl shy, but not lonesome.

PHYLLIS NUECHTERLEIN

Salutatorian—a Fowler transfer, Phyllis has really done her part these last two years at Rodney B.—always ready to help—senior play and J-Hop committees—a loyal "band blower" and a true Latin clubber.

ELINOR OSBORN

Spends summer working in Lansing—a junior and senior play cast member—Ushers' club—Latin club member—a two year string in Writers' club—member of the Annual staff.

RUTH OSGOOD

Served her country on the Defense council two years—member of the Latin club—the house that Ruth built, with no lights—"Oh! but you're so strong."

SHIRLEY OSGOOD

Valedictorian—started career as freshman representative—chorus, musicals, Christmas programs—"bells on the air"—Latin club—Writers' club—won a scholarship award and sports a torch pin—J-Hop and junior play committee chairman—junior play—Annual staff—"her father's on the school board."

PLAYERS

PHYLLIS PARKS

Rather shy, dark-haired girl—a member of F. H. A. for the first and second years of her high school career—seen with Joyce Orweller, her constant companion.

