

In Consumer Economics all students go through the process of getting married and divorced. Students make a food list, and find out all the expenses of getting an apartment. Its good experience for Seniors who will be experiencing these things very soon. Seniors Denise Ferris and Kevin Conley are just one of the married couples who went through marriage and divorce. Pictured here they pose for a wedding picture.

Towards the end of the semester in Mr. Wilcox government class the students put on a mock trial. Each Senior plays a specific part in the trial whether it be: lawyer, juror, judge, or defendant. While the trials were being held, they were videotaped and viewed by the students later. Judge Dave Selkie and Attorney Larry Slade talk over some strategy of the trial.

The Senior class officers for the class of 1980 are from left to right: Pam VeCasey, representative; Mike VanRooyan, president; Beth Schmaker, representative; Norma Arias, representative; Scot VanBuren, vice-president; Robin Lawson, secretary. Missing are: Ben Manring, treasurer; Joy Strahle, representative.

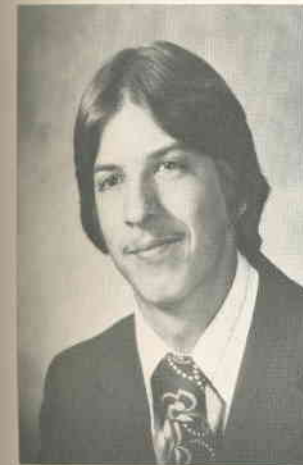

Ed Mox

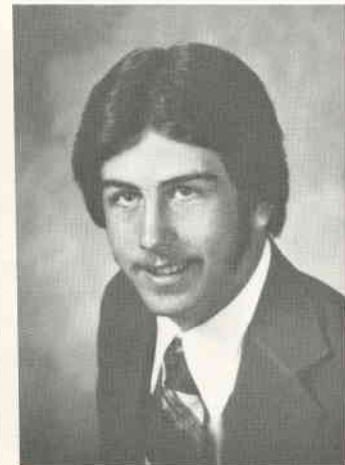

Jeffrey Musolf

Debra Nierenberger

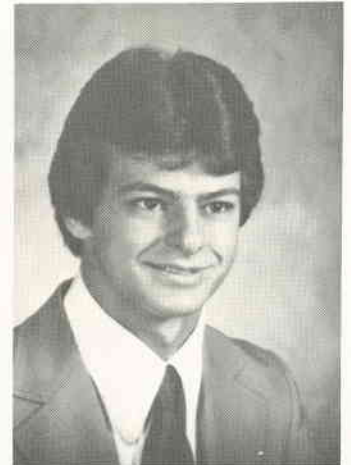

Michael O'Dell

Bruce Orweller

Ronda Osga

Gary Paddock

Laurie Page

Joseph Parker

Robert Parks

Teri Patterson