

Tea Time

Smith Hall was the setting for the 38th annual Senior Tea fashion show held May 1st. Sponsoring the event was the St. Johns Women's Club and Letts fashions of Lansing.

Through the years, this event has become a tradition and holds a special meaning to the senior girls of each graduating class. This is a time for each girl to get dressed up, visit with friends, and enjoy a spectacular fashion show. There were twelve senior girls who participated in modeling the fashions, they were: Terie Campbell, Theresa DeSander, Reanne Fleischer, Kim Hiebeck, Barb Holliday, Vicki Martinez, Melinda Roberts, Pam Salters, Pam Sehlike, Shana Thum, Jamie Warner, and Laurie Warren (shown in picture).

"This has been a real high light for the Womens Club to sponsor and each year they enjoy it more," commented Mrs. Root, who has been in charge of the event for the past six years. □ Kim Fenby
