

Ronald Pung
Theresa Pung
Christine Purvis

Cheryl Rademacher
Dan Redman
Jean Rewerts

Cindy Renolds
Roxanne Rieves
William Riley

Heading South For The Sun

Spring Break Is Time For Fun

The transformation from grey clouded skies to warm sandy beaches was a welcomed change for many students who went on vacation over Spring Break. After Easter Vacation rolled around in early April, a lot of Seniors made their Senior year special and went away with their friends. A week or for some, even two weeks was a refreshing feeling away from home.

There were a variety of places that people visited. Among those places was the ever-so-popular state of Florbers of Matalica. Both Amy and Ronda broke into tears while boarding their flight to Michigan because they didn't want to leave. "It was all one big party," Amy said. "I'll never forget it," Ronda said.

Less fortunate people stayed in Michigan, with the white covered ground, and low temperatures. Senior Theresa Hackett spent her vacation working at McDonalds making extra cash. "It gave me extra time to spend with my boyfriend," said Theresa.

was great. We just did what we wanted, and they did what they wanted.

Jody Peters, Paul Travis and Tom Moon all went to Florida. Jody said they all met a lot of people. All Seniors should go someplace for spring break in their senior year, according to these three boys. The average student spends about $400.00 to $500.00 on Spring Break. Although that's the life savings of most students, they claim it's all worth trading those green backs for that warm sun and golden brown