million people.

"I try to ignore my fears," said senior Gayle Osentoski.

It is hard to say if fright is a good emotion or not. It is up to the individual to decide.

"It's a good emotion. When you're a little kid, if you don't have fear, you could get hurt," added Harger "Fear cuts down on what you can really do," said senior Brent Voisinet.

Whether it is viewed as positive or negative, fear is something which must be faced to avoid sweaty palms and thudding hearts.
