

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS INCLUDED...

BIG CHANCES

“Coming home late, then sneaking back out. But getting caught,” said Chad Adams.

“I was with Larry Pung and Lorin Grams. Larry and I thought he could drive through a ditch and lost control and rolled his truck up the side, and we had to climb out the passenger’s window,” said Tom Lewis.

“Skipping school with two of my friends in my junior year. We got caught and I spent half of spring break grounded,” said Kristen Kirkbride.

“Excessive donut runs and lunch runs to Burger King,” said Dave. Kudwa.

“When I was a junior, I took my girlfriend and her friend to a basketball game at Corunna. Her dad let us use their van and told us not to hot rod it on the way home. We raced Chip Lott and Chad Smith home. When my girlfriends dad found out, boy were we in hot water !!,” said Bob Suchek.

“To Start out ou senior year, Jamie Youngs and I attended a “Farewell to Summer” beach party, on Lake Michigan. We woke up the next morning still on the beach. What an outrageous way to begin a senior year,” said Jenny Schwartz.

“I entered a beauty pageant,” said Kristy VanElls.

“Picking a fight with a boy and actually going through with it,” said Julie Fleischmann.
