

Jason Roof
Army
Erinn Rumzek
Work
Brent Russell
Army
Andrea Schaub
LCC

Caren Schmidt
WMU
Jason Schmitt
CMU
Gail Schneider
College
Justin Schneider
College

Kenneth Schneider
Undecided
Kari Schwerin
Michigan Tech
Jennifer Searles
LCC
Emily Seavey
LCC

Rated R Means Adult Responsibilities By Tammy Kurncz

Having a credit card can be a big responsibility. Of 50 seniors polled the majority do not own a credit card, but the ones who do mainly have the Visa gold.

"I usually use my gold card for shopping and making car payments, even though my mom says its only for emergencies," said Senior Angie Dunkel.

Turning 18 for most students means paying for most of their personal items.

"I have to pay for my clothes, eyewear, food, and other personal items I need," said Senior Becky Ehrlich.

Voting seems to be a high priority for seniors. The majority plan to vote in the upcoming presidential election. Most are still undecided about their decision.

"My vote is still undecided but I do plan to vote," said Senior Kerri

Daley.

Becoming a legal adult is a big responsibility. But according to most seniors the privileges far outweigh any disadvantages.

Todd Shinabery

A CREDIT CARD is a special privilege for Senior Matt Matson.