Seniors' Big Dreams Planned By Wendy Cocco

Many laughed at the phrase "what's your dream" in the hit movie "Pretty Woman". In reality there's no need to laugh, many students do have big dreams.

"I want to become an airline pilot," said Senior Jerry Kleingens.

Many are thinking "big money" and are willing to work hard for it.

"I'm going to become a successful doctor under the title, Ehrlich, Chant, and Wadell," said Senior Sarah Chant.

Some dreams may not be specific but are very similar for many people.

"I want to be successful at whatever I'm doing and enjoy it," said Senior Ben Andrews

Students may have dreams but just how far do they go into detail?

"I'm going to have a restraut and it's going to be famous and everyone cool is going to be there and they're going to play music with big bands," said Senior Emma French.

"I want to own my own warm blood (horse) farm out west and be married to the guy of my dreams," said Senior Kelly Jones.

Whether it's a movie image or just something you've always hoped for, don't stop following your dreams until you finally reach them.
