PHYSIOGNOMY is the study of one's facial features. To know a person better, the best way is t read his face. It is said that face reading can be helpful when dating or even applying for a job that best suits you. Guess which of the following students are featured below: David Canfield, Andy Jones, Jessica Longoria, Tera McDonald, Katie Simmons, Abe Wilson. (Answers are listed below.)

EYES Brown eyes signify a person who cares deeply for family and is affectionate with a serious nature. Photo by Brea Hallenbeck

EYEBROWS A person with flat eyebrows is someone shy. He is introverted or naturally Photo by Brea Hallenbeck

LIPS People with fulllips tend to be easy Photo by Eric Hayn going.

MORE FACE READING: A forehead that slopes back at an angle indicates a person who jumps to conclusions. He tends to excel in sports where quick reactions are part of the game. Those with vertical foreheads, however, need time to accumulate information and process it. They tend to go blank when the pressure is on. The shape of one's cheeks also has meaning. People with full, rounded cheeks are loving individuals who are cheerful and filled with good feeling. Thos with high cheekbones tend to be high-spirited and love to travel.
