STONE COLD STUNNER

The wrestlers who perform on T.V. may be all the inspiration needed in order to cause Josh Burgess and Alec Davis to take part in the winter Renaissance assembly. "I love to wrestle, and I wanted to make a fool of myself in front of my friends and peers! I also wanted to use some techniques from the professionals: the Sleeper or the Stone Cold Stunner," said Davis. "I like watching wrestling on T.V., so I thought I'd give it a shot. In fact, I would take the chance to mud wrestle any day because I liked entertaining the crowd!" Burgess said. After a number of attempts, Burgess successfully managed to tear the handkerchief from Davis's ankle, thereby making him the undisputed champion of St. Johns High School. "I felt nervous considering his size. While we wrestled, all I could think about was how to get him on the ground so I could rip off the handkerchief," Burgess said. Burgess was indeed the Stone Cold Stunner.
