

♫ YELLING CONTEST Showing their "senior"ity over the underclassmen, the seniors shout as loudly as they can to the pep band's rendition of Eat 'Em Up! "This is my favorite part of every pep assembly," said Mike Hanley (bottom left). "I almost popped a blood vessel the third time we had to yell." Using the yelling contest as a means to draw out the pep assembly was a common practice. During this particular assembly, there were no fewer than eight rounds of yelling. Photo by Hillary LeFevre
