WWII EXHIBIT OPENS NEW SEASON AT THE PAINE-GILLAM-SCOTT MUSEUM

Exhibits for the opening of the 1995 season will be, "WWII" and "Home Front Memories."

Some questions you might ask yourself, to jog your memories of WWII, are: What were you doing when you heard the news that the Japanese had bombed Pearl harbor? What one thing - a phrase, picture, activity - most often comes to mind when you think of those years? How did you learn about what was happening in the war overseas? Did you do anything special to keep track of the war news, like keeping a scrapbook? How did the war affect your family life? How strong are your memories of this period compared to other times in your life? How did you celebrate the war's end?

A trip to the museum will trigger old forgotten memories for you. Be sure to visit the museum and bring your children and grand children.. History will become real to them, through your memories.

The museum's hours are Sundays 1-5 p.m. and Wednesdays 2-8 p.m., except holidays. Admission is by donation.

The Archives, located at 4700 Brook Road, Dewitt, MI, in the NE corner of the DeWitt Charter Twp. Hall, has pictures and information about Clinton County service men, serving in all wars, as well as general genealogical information.

To better serve you, the Archives will be open four days a week. Monday & Tuesday 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. and Thursday & Friday from 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. A volunteer will be available to help you with your research. □

MARRIAGES 1921-23

as printed in The Clinton Republican

We are indebted to Wilma Sowle for extracting these marriages from the Clinton Republican News. From the time the "Archives" was just a few books in a closet, at the Museum, Wilma has contributed many hours of time and research to help it become what it is today.
