WWII EXHIBIT OPENS NEW SEASON AT THE PAINE-GILLAM-SCOTT MUSEUM

Exhibits for the opening of the 1995 season will be, "WWII" and "Home Front Memories."

Some questions you might ask yourself, to jog your memories of WWII, are: What were you doing when you heard the news that the Japanese had bombed Pearl harbor? What one thing - a phrase, picture, activity - most often comes to mind when you think of those years? How did you learn about what was happening in the war overseas? Did you do anything special to keep track of the war news, like keeping a scrapbook? How did the war affect your family life? How strong are your memories of this period compared to other times in your life? How did you celebrate the war's end?

A trip to the museum will trigger old forgotten memories for you. Be sure to visit the museum and bring your children and grand children.. History will become real to them, through your memories.

The museum's hours are Sundays 1-5 p.m. and Wednesdays 2-8 p.m., except holidays. Admission is by donation.

The Archives, located at 4700 Brook Road, Dewitt, MI, in the NE corner of the DeWitt Charter Twp. Hall, has pictures and information about Clinton County service men, serving in all wars, as well as general genealogical information.

To better serve you, the Archives will be open four days a week. Monday & Tuesday 9 a.m.- 4 p.m. and Thursday & Friday from 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. A volunteer will be available to help you with your research. □

MARRIAGES 1921-23

as printed in The Clinton Republican

We are indebted to Wilma Sowle for extracting these marriages from the Clinton Republican News. From the time the "Archives" was just a few books in a closet, at the Museum, Wilma has contributed many hours of time and research to help it become what it is today.

DEMOCRAT WAGON

Was anyone wondering what kind of wagon used to be called a "democrat wagon?" [See 58 of the previous newsletter.] According to the 1937 edition of Webster's New International Dictionary, it was a light, uncovered wagon with two or more seats. Evidently there were no "republican" or "independent" wagons. □

WILD ANIMAL TALES

The following animal tales were discovered by Wilma Sowle in the June 9, 1921, issue of The Clinton County Republican.

SQUIRREL KILLED CHICKS

Mrs. Daniel Broch who lives on what is known as the old Bruce farm in southeast Essex, discovered the past week that a red squirrel had been catching her young chickens and gnawing a hole in the side of their heads and sucking their blood. A well directed shot from the family gun put an end to the squirrel's career. The carcasses of the little chickens can be seen in the crotch of an apple and pear tree. In all about 50 chickens had been taken.

BLUE SNAKE 2-ACT TRAGEDY

While visiting his farm a short time ago, City Manager Theodore H. Townsend played opposite a large blue racer in a thrilling two-act tragedy for the snake, and nearly so for Mr. Townsend.

In company with Fred E. Caruss the city manager was passing through a field some distance from the farm house when the reptile was first encountered. It was coiled contentedly in a hollow log, with its mate nearby.

The two men decided the skin of Mr. Racer would be theirs and set about with forked sticks to make the decision fact. The snake was of a different mind, however, and was the first to take action in settling the dispute. Before Mr. Townsend realized what had happened a blue streak shot past his ear, missing it by about a hundredth of an inch. The snake landed some ten feet behind him, but before it could strike again, Mr. Caruss had killed it. The mate had by this time disappeared.

By means of one of the forked sticks, the dead snake was dragged through several fields to the house, where it was left on a stump. After supper Mr. Townsend placed it in a sack and took it home in his car. The next morning the tenant on the place discovered the mate on the same stump. He was forced to kill it as it would not leave the spot.

"If I had dragged the bull snake to St. Johns behind the car," says Mr. Townsend, "we might have had the mate as a pet today!" □
