EVENTS OF GENEALOGICAL INTEREST

● The Mid-Michigan Genealogical Society will be holding a seminar, September 19, 20 & 21 at the Holiday Inn South/Convention Center, Lansing, Michigan, featuring Dr. George K. Schweitzer. Five tracts include *beginners, *deversity, *migration to Michigan, *methodology & *computers. To recieve Semanar/reservation information, as soon as it becomes available, send your name & address to William Atkinson, 11172 Pioneer Road, Portland, MI 48875.

● The seventh Genealogy & History Book Fair will be held Sunday, March 31, 1996, from 10 am - 4:30 pm in rooms 101 - 104 at the Lansing Center, 333 E. Michigan Ave., Lansing, MI. If you have never attended one of these book fairs, you will be in for a pleasent surprise. There is a $1.50 charge to enter, but if you love books, you'll love this fair.

● If you haven't been to the State Library or the Latter Day Saints library lately you should make an effort to do so. The new technology has made information available that has not been available before. Computer records are easy to search, and help is available to walk you through the procedure. For those of you who don't want to tackle the computer yourself, someone has done it for you and transferred records to microfilm and microfisch and books. This takes some searching, but files & files of information are there and these records can all be copied. You don't even have to worry about having the correct change. They have plastic cards you can purchase, and all copying equiptment will automaticly deduct the cost of the copy and tell you how much credit is left on the card. We truly are in the "information age!" □

PRECISE ADVICE ON SASE'S

Lately, several publications of other societies have printed an article about the trouble the post office is having with folded envelopes inside another envelope. They tend to get damaged or ruined by becoming caught in the automated machinery. The post office recommends that self-addressed, stamped envelopes be left unfolded, and then inserted in a slightly larger envelope. □

EXTRA HOURS AT ARCHIVES TO RESUME

Thomas Thiell plans to resume staffing the archives beginning with February. He will be there from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Thursdays and Fridays to help researchers. It was he who abstracted the marriage records beginning on page 2 of this issue. □
