HEWITT FAMILY

In October of this year Merrie DeVoe gave a packet of Hewitt family papers to the archives. Her mother, Lillian Gardner Sump, was unofficially adopted by Eileen (Cowles) Little (a descendant of the Hewitts) and her husband, Oliver Little. She says, "After Oliver died my mother helped with Eileen and was made her personal representative. ...If anyone cares to know more about their personalities or lives I would be happy to share my remembrances. I am the only one left of the Sump family." mamagenie@live.com 616-826-6972 PMB6793, Box 2428, Pensacola, FL 32513.

William A. Hewitt was born in Steuben Co., NY, on the 26th day of Nov. 1811. Prominent among the early settlers of Michigan, we find the name of William A. Hewitt who came to this state in 1835 accompanied by his wife, a daughter of Zachariah Hyatt who was one of the first clothiers in the city of New York. They stopped in Oakland Co. where they remained until Feb. 1836. They came to Clinton Co., settling in the town of DeWitt, being the third family in the county. Their first home was a log cabin built upon forty acres purchased from the government. During fifteen years' residence in DeWitt all of which time he was justice of the peace while engaged in different kinds of business, he cleared and improved three farms; and in the summer of 1851 he cleared and put in seventy acres of wheat. He was known as a land agent, looking up and locating land and settlers and speculators, doing a general real estate business. On the 20th of Feb., 1852, Mr. Hewitt removed to Essex Twp., locating on section 5 on the banks of Maple River. Purchasing 240 acres of land upon which sits part of the village of Maple Rapids. [William is buried in the Sowle Cemetery] (Hewitt Family Papers)

Mrs. Hannah C. Hewitt was born in Orange Co., NY, March 15, 1813, and died at her home in Maple Rapids Nov. 2, 1898. She was married to William A. Hewitt in 1830 and came with her husband to Michigan in 1835, and to Clinton Co., in 1836, settling in the town of DeWitt. On Feb. 20, 1853, she came with her family to this town and bought a large tract of land. Her family was among the first, if not the first, household that started the village of Maple Rapids. Five children were born to Mrs. Hewitt and grew to maturity, four sons and one daughter. Only two of her children are now living: Isaac and Rufus H., both of whom reside in this place. Her first husband died on the 12th of Feb., 1863, and in 1865 she was married to Simon Hewitt, her first husband's brother. She became a member of the Methodist Church in 1869 and for about 30 years was a faithful, consistent member of that society. She always manifested a great interest in religious work and was kind-hearted and charitable. Rev. A. O. Carman, who had been her pastor for five years, attended her funeral and was assisted in the services by the Rev. A. F. Luther. Her two sisters, Mrs. A. Leonard of Albion and Mrs. Jones of Gaines, were present and also other friends from abroad. [Hannah is buried in the Sowle Cemetery] (Clinton Republican; 10 Nov 1898)

Note: The archives also hold: Descendants of Captain Thomas Hewitt of Stonington, CT; and Our Hewitt Family, both books by Virginia (Hewitt) Watterson.

Cowell, The Misses Gertrude Mead, Carland DeCew, Brownie Bromley, Marion Ney, Anna Ketchem, Florence Waters, Florence Wilson, Florence Teachout, Blanche Goette, Nora Ball. The season for sparrow shooting commences the first of Nov. and judging from the number of the little pests to be seen in the vicinity there will be a rich harvest for the small boy. The bounty which the state pays for the bodies of the birds will make it lucrative shooting for a good rifle shot.
