PEACOCK SCHOOL

Dist. #3, Section 24, Bath Twp.

undated (1929?) newspaper article

An interesting old document was brought to the Republican-News office one day recently by former Supervisor, Enos Peacock of Bath Township. It was a part of the proceedings of School Dist. No. 3, Bath, and was executed in May 1865. At that time the school board of Dist. No. 3 engaged the services of Ann E. Birchard "to teach the primary school for a term of 17 weeks for the sum of $25.50." The contract set forth the duties and conditions under which Miss Birchard was to teach and provided that she might be dismissed for "gross immorality of if she shall have her certificate annulled by the school inspector". The school board obligated itself, in addition to providing the $25.50 salary for 17 weeks, to keep the schoolhouse in good repair and keep plenty of fuel ready. Another paper showed the report of the annual meeting; that another teacher, Amanda Abel, was paid $32.50 and that the entire expense of the school for the year was $61.35 which amount included $5 for installing a new stove. The primary school money received from the state that year amounted to $12, which represented two months' expenses. Mr. Peacock pointed out that the amount now received pays the expense of the Bath Consolidated school for three months. These old documents were signed by Collins M. Sergent, Director, and William Peacock, Assessor.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

Observed Ascension Day and Decorated Graves of Departed Brothers

PAST COMMANDER'S JEWEL

was presented to William M. Smith as a Token of Appreciation for His Work as Commander

Sunday afternoon about 50 Knights Templar and their families met in their asylum for a service, the occasion being observed as Ascension Day.

Rev. J. T. Ewing gave an appropriate sermon and the thoughts and ideas he brought out were splendid. The Episcopal choir sang several selections.

The Knights Templar marched to the cemetery and placed flowers upon the graves of their deceased members. They were accompanied by the St. Johns band which furnished excellent music. It was their first appearance.

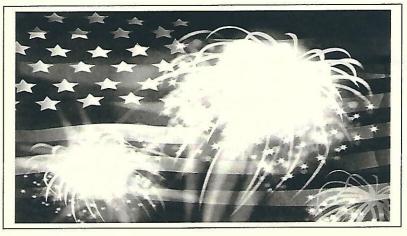

They returned to the asylum where Eminent Commander, A. G. Jones made a few remarks and then J. L. Ring in behalf of the Knights presented William M. Smith with a beautiful Past Commander's jewel as a token of their appreciation for his work as eminent commander for two years. He responded with a short talk.

Below is the list of those whose graves were decorated and the date of their deaths:

Thus far this year nearly 500 bicycles have been sold by the dealers of St. Johns. The figures average between $30 and $40. A great many have also come from different companies who sent their wheels C.O.D. Altogether there has been about $15,000 spent for bicycles. The dealers say that there will be quite a number sold yet this season.

Can anyone please ID this woman?

Tom Beechler used to live in the house at 309 S. Oakland St. in St. Johns. While he was sorting through his father's estate he found, in the attic, the framed picture of this woman. He would like to identify her. The previous owners were Alvin Shaver, Albert Nelson, Rachel Arnold, Eva Nelson and Mark Fields.

CHAPMAN SCHOOL

Dist #2 Frl.; Section 2 Riley Twp. undated (1929?) newspaper article

The Chapman School of Riley closed their term with a picnic on the [Merle] Beach grounds on Friday and besides the school children there was a large gathering of children of a larger growth represented by the parents, grandparents, and friends of the pupils. An abundant dinner was served out doors in which the management and employees of the resort participated on invitation. The ladies set up the cigars for the gentlemen and everybody seemed to do something to make every other body happy. Mrs. Ansel Chapman, Mrs. Romeo Georgia, Mrs. Arthur Bullard, Mrs. Vernon Strong, and Mrs. William Hettler seemed to be the committee on arrangements and acted as if they had considerable experience in the art of making people comfortable. The exercises closing the school term were held in the ball room of the Beach house and all present enjoyed the efforts of the children to amuse and instruct them. In the opinion of the older members of the audience, the teacher, Miss Bessie Hicks, deserves much credit for the way in which her charges acquitted themselves and as an evidence that her labors in this direction were appreciated by her pupils, Neva Chapman, at the close of the exercises, on behalf of the school, presented Miss Hicks with a handsomely engraved spoon and case and a silver thimble and case. The motor launch was kept busy during a large part of the day taking the ladies and children round the lake while the men fished and otherwise enjoyed themselves. In the evening everyone left for home tired, but happy.
