Bingham Grange Records
 Dec. 17, 1910

A warrent was issued for the arrest of B. Veron Merrihew on the charges of a crude way of living which was served by Undersheriff B. Wyman, and he was taken before Justice Br. Wilcox. His plea being "Not Guilty," he was bound over to a peer before Judge Munson in Bingham Court on the evening of Dec. 31, 1910. Bonds were put at $500.00, Br. Merrihew was fortunate in securing bonds and was allowed to go home.

Dec. 31, 1910 The trial of B. Merrihew, charged with a crude way of living, was tried before a jury, Br Larkins and Br. Gage for the plaintiff; Br. Norris and Br. Hunt for the defendant. Judge Munson at the close of the suit took the case from the jurors and in a few words pronouced the defendant guilty and sentenced him to the Pie House for 90 days with a muzzle.

Charles Munger, Secretary

Can anyone tell us what and where the Pie House might have been and also why the muzzle? Also what the charge a crude way of living might entail.

A PLEA FOR MATERIAL

Anyone having a family story that you would like printed in the Clinton County Trails, please send it to Catherine Reed, 581 West State Road, Lansing, Michigan 48906.

This is your publication. Please help Lois Fohl and Catherine Reed keep it as interesting as possible.

MEMBERS NEEDED

An organization to grow and prosper needs a strong membership. The more people on board, the more interesting projects can be tackled. The Clinton County Historical Society, since its beginnings in 1974 has had many successes and would like to have many more. Please bring a prospective member with you to the next meeting. President Arlene Lounds will welcome each and every one who comes.
